A REQUEST TO ALL MEN AND WOMEN. OF UNDERSTANDING ON THIS PLANET

Deepest dimension of religious and spiritual awareness doesn't ever demand expressions. In the movement of that depth the "I", the "me" that wishes to express itself in special costumes or caps or marks or hair-locks or titles or name-changing or hierarchy in religious organisation, doesn't exist at all !

Religion is something that is most holy; that is the most sacred thing in life and, if you (mind) have made a mess of your life by the baloneys and the belief-systems of society and its horrible religions or its sects or its cults or "spirituality" or its "cosmic homes" or its "miracles" or its "astral travels" or its "kundalini experience" and so on to perpetuate & promote the illusion "I", then change it for God's sake! Change it today, not tomorrow. Be available to the awareness of facts and actuality - not remain asleep in fragmentations and assumptions. The "I", the "me" is always asleep. Let life see this, and wake up. If you are uncertain, find out why and be certain. If your thinking is not straight, think straight and be awake. Unless all this is prepared, all that is settled, you (life) can't enter into the deepest dimension of religion and creation.

When there is this concentration of energy, which is the outcome of no effort, and when that energy has no motive whatsoever, at that moment there is the depth of religious awareness which is not a product of the separative consciousness. Meditation is the release of that religious energy, which is possible only where there is love. Religion is something that has no relationship with knowledge from "religious books and scriptures".
