

Message 192

Paris, May 17, 2010

Sermon on the Mount is not from the separative mind. Mathew-5, 1 to 12 as seen in the dimension of Yoga.

Who are Blessed?

1. Blessed are those who are not rich --- but just have enough.
2. Blessed are those who mourn in compassion.
3. Blessed are those who are meek --- not aggressive.
4. Blessed are those who are filled with righteousness --- not right or wrong.
5. Blessed are the merciful having the sense of gratitude.
6. Blessed are those in purity of Intelligence (life) --- not in the perversity of 'I' (mind).
7. Blessed are the peacemakers --- not the war-mongers.
8. Blessed are those who are persecuted!
9. Blessed are those who are admonished rather than appreciated!

Words must be used, but communication is not only verbal but also non-verbal! Seeing clearly without distortion the whole illusory content of the separative consciousness is to be hit by the Sermon on the Mount in the dimension of Yoga! Meditation in Kriya Yoga is not for the immature. Mind is always immature!
