I. Shattering all the stupid hopes and expectations of the shoddy "I", ONE appeared with empty hands! But then the shock of the momentary disappointment disappeared instantly by the touch of the Holy Hand in Emptiness!

The living quality of life remained compromised so far in the agonising lurch of the nerve-wrecking phenomenon of wanting and getting. And the occasion has now come to surrender this "I" absolutely and unconditionally in Thy Holy Hands!

Let the darkness of the divisive mind remain for the daily tasks of triviality, but may the touch of Thy Hand continue unabated in the non-fragmented emptiness of the Inner-ness.

Life was being wasted in the mental-material delusions and deceptions so far. And now this mind may be melted and dissolved in the ocean of Immortality despite the mortality of the body-mind outfit.

II. In the intense night of the nasty "I-ness", the door of the defence-mechanism of the dirty and Divisive "me-ness" was suddenly blasted by a booming storm. And thus Thou entered in one's innermost space revealing the mysterious compassion!

Initially one was bewildered by the enormity and suddenness of it all, but then one opened up to a Strange Otherness!

For a while, one remained in the obscurity of a divisive doubt, but then one instantly doubted the doubt and the storm was understood deeply as Thy Flag of Vitality and Veracity. Then there was the dawn; and in the total emptiness of one's inner being, saw Thee standing right on one's chest!

Jai Insight!
