Gandhi's Martyrdom Day

Gandhi: A Life, Love and Veracity.

'Gandhians': Only mind, vanity and vested interests.

O beloved friends, listen!

- 1) Mind has philosophy, Life has none.
- 2) Mind perpetuates and promotes cunning systems of thoughts, Life does not.
- 3) Mind has 'religion', Life has none.
- 4) Mind develops 'holy' rituals in deep sanctuaries, Life does not.
- 5) Mind has god and other garbage of gratification and greed, Life has none.
- 6) Mind carries the burden of fearsome mystery, Life does not.
- 7) Mind creates goals and abodes, Life does not.
- 8) Mind has the aching sorrow of decay, Life is joy.
- 9) Mind has pleasures, pain and corruption in Love; Life is profound existence in perception and compassion.
- 10) Mind is either good or evil or the dark punishment of careless sin.
Life is choiceless, non-divisive, divine Awareness – All pervasive.
- 11) Mind needs comfort or it rests on the shrine of oblivion. Life has nothing to do with all this.
- 12) Life is neither spirit nor matter, nor is there a division between action and inaction.
- 13) Life has no death, only mind dies. Body too does not die, it starts flowing in new streams of Life.
- 14) Life is absolute and unconditional freedom from mind and its separative psyche 'I'.
Mind is myth. It is not veracity, even though it has validity and it provides functional value in performing daily technical tasks.
- 15) Free is the human who lives in the Eternal, FOR LIFE IS.
