

A short Message enumerating the core of teachings of J.
Krishnamurti.

Truth is a pathless land.

Man cannot come to it through any organization, through any creed (Hindu, Muslim, Christian, Judaism, Communism etc.). He has to find it through the mirror of relationship, through the understanding of the contents of his own mind, through observation and not through intellectual analysis. Man must perceive Life without interference from mental concepts.

Contents of Man's consciousness are common to all humanity. The individual identity is for passport, driving licence, credit card etc...

Freedom from psychological time is the greatest enlightenment. It is the choiceless awareness in our daily existence.

Fusion of observer and the observed, of the seeker and the sought, of the thinker and the thought, of the experiencer and the experienced — is the first and last freedom or the only freedom; wherein one dies to the mind-
'I' from moment to moment to wake up in Life, Love, Divinity every moment.
