A biography of cancer

Dr Siddhartha Mukherjee's 500 paged wonderful book entitled "The Emperor of All Maladies" is indeed a masterpiece treatise on cancer disease. Naturally, it is the winner of the Guardian First Book Award. It is a riveting book, a new star, a thriller, beautifully written, fascinating, mysterious, yet non-medical public will be able to comprehend the insight with regard to the suffering and dying as a consequence of this malady. It is a wonderful piece of medical journalism.

Message 462 revealed the Genius of the Eminent Professor of Biology as also a Medical Doctor of high reputation, Dr. Siddhartha Mukherjee, through his beautiful book entitled "The song of the cell". Here is another par excellent book, which is strongly recommended for studying very carefully, page by page and line by line. "His Highness" the "Emperor" may summon any one, anytime ! His whims are not predictable ! Killing is his pleasure !
