Profound contemplative movements of perceptions, following a deep meditative process occurred in the dimension of Freedom from mind, *while reading slowly, word by word, J. Krishnamurti's (1895-1986) spontaneous utterance stated below:—

“The moment we want to be something, we are no longer free.”

To be a Catholic, a Protestant, an orthodox Christian; a Shia, a Sunni, an Ahmedia, a Pathan, a Mongolian, an Arab, a Turk, a Sindhi, a Punjabi, a Kashmiri, a Bengali, a Malayali, a Pakistani, a Bihari, an African, an Egyptian, a Tamil Muslim;
a Brahmin, a Kshatriya, a Vaishya, a Shudra Hindu; a German, a French, an English, a Russian, a Japanese, a Burmese, an Israeli, an Indonesian, a Dutch, an American, a Canadian, a South American, a Greek, a Marwari, a Gujarati, a Gandhian etc. etc. endlessly !!!

Is it possible to be aware of our conditioned involvement of wanting to be something of such sorts, which lead to a bondage, denying us absolute-unconditional-freedom ?

Jai JK's Spontaneous Utterance.
